OWINGVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, NOV. 10, 1910.

NO. 18.

THE ELECTION.—At the early hour of going to press returns from Tuesday's election are meager. New York gave a large Democratic majority, the city of New York giving Dem., for Governor, 150,000 majority. W. J. Fields, Dem., for Congress in the Ninth district, defeats J. B. Bennett, Rep., by probably 1,000, while Langley, Rep., is re-elected over A. Floyd Byrd in the Tenth by from 700 to 1,400. It is reported that the telegraph and telephone wires all over the country are cut.

Fields carried Bath county by about 150 majority.
